STEPS TO MEMBERSHIP

Have you been visiting FUS for a while? Wondering how to take the "next step"?
Read on for an overview of our membership process.

Come, come whoever you are

Whether you're a long term visitor, an RE affiliate, a dear friend, or a bright new face, welcome! If you've been wondering how you can become more involved in the community here at FUS, you've come to the right place.

In the yellow box below, and the blue box to the side of these paragraphs, you can find information on practical matters - dates for our visitor orientations and recognition ceremonies, as well as information about where to find pledge forms and how to schedule a meeting with our Membership Coordinator, Laney Ohmans.

. . . wanderer,
worshiper, lover of learning. Come, yet again, come!

- Rumi

It's impressive that you've decided to take this step forward - making an intentional commitment to a faith community can be a long and sometimes difficult process.

Membership means opening yourself up to all the responsibilities and benefits of sustaining our community here at FUS. It means taking an active role in the growth and development of an institution that you can be proud to call your church home.

This kind of commitment isn't just financial. It's emotional, mental, spiritual. It's you offering your best self, and taking other members at their word that they will do the same.

Steps to Membership at

FUS

There are a few different ways that you can become a member here at FUS. If you'd like a brief overview of the history of Unitarian Universalism, as well as a history of the Society, you are welcome to attend one of our monthly visitor orientation sessions. You'll get a chance to meet the minister, and ask any questions you might have. Lunch will be our treat. If you are unable to attend a visitor orientation session, please feel free to set up an appointment with our Membership Coordinator, Laney. You can reach her via email: membership@firstunitarian.org, or phone: 612-377-6608.
